

AOS Software disclaimer - Effective date – 22 March 2017

1.0 Intended Use

The intended use of AOS Slit software is that of a Risk Calculator in clinical diagnosis to be used by qualified persons. Therefore, results and analysis obtained from the use of the software are intended as guidelines only. It is assumed that decisions made by the user are based upon their own expertise.

2.0 Medical Device classification

AOS Slit software is a CE approved Class I Medical Device conforming to MEDDEV 93/42/EEC under Rule 12. Therefore it is approved for use in all regions accepting CE marking.

AOS does not accept any responsibility for use of its products outside of these regions.

3.0 Provisions for Software use

Software downloaded from the AOS web site is provided 'as is' without warranty of any kind, either express or implied, including, but not limited to, the implied warranties of fitness for a purpose, or the warranty of non-infringement.

Without limiting the foregoing, AOS makes no warranty that:

- I. the software will meet your requirements
- II. the software will be uninterrupted, timely, secure or error-free
- III. the results that may be obtained from the use of the software will be effective, accurate or reliable
- IV. the quality of the software will meet your expectations
- V. any errors in the software obtained from the AOS web site will be corrected

Software and its documentation made available on the AOS web site:

- I. could include technical or other mistakes, inaccuracies or typographical errors, AOS may make changes to the software or documentation made available on its web site
- II. may be out of date, and the AOS makes no commitment to update such materials

AOS assumes no responsibility for errors or omissions in the software or documentation available from its web site.

In no event shall AOS be liable to you or any third parties for any special, punitive, incidental, indirect or consequential damages of any kind, or any damages whatsoever, including, without limitation, those resulting from loss of use, data or profits, whether or not AOS has been advised of the possibility of such damages, and on any theory of liability, arising out of or in connection with the use of this software.

The use of the software downloaded through the AOS site is done at your own discretion and risk and with agreement that you will be solely responsible for any damage to your computer system or loss of data that results from such activities. No advice or information, whether oral or written, obtained by you from AOS or from the AOS web site shall create any warranty for the software.

4.0 Reasonableness

By using this website/software, you agree that the exclusions and limitations of liability set out in this website/software disclaimer are reasonable.

If you do not think they are reasonable, you must not use this website or software.

5.0 Other parties

You accept that, as a limited liability entity, AOS has an interest in limiting the personal liability of its officers and employees. You agree that you will not bring any claim personally against AOS's officers or employees in respect of any losses you suffer in connection with the website or software.

Without prejudice to the foregoing paragraph, you agree that the limitations of warranties and liability set out in this website and software disclaimer will protect AOS's officers, employees, agents, subsidiaries, successors, assigns and sub-contractors as well as AOS.

6.0 Unenforceable provisions

If any provision of this website/software disclaimer is, or is found to be, unenforceable under applicable law, that will not affect the enforceability of the other provisions of this website/software disclaimer.
